Go Daddy

Amended Petition of Cancellation reference # 92063588. The grounds for petition of cancellation in regards to Go Daddy Registered Mark # 2558989. I believe I am suffering billions of dollars in damages in regards to my stolen idea for domain name registration, websites online etc., I planned on coming out with my own line of Products, Flat Panel TV, Computers, etc., that I invented and reinvented. I contacted The United States Patent and Trademark Office after submitting a few of my ideas' to a Patent Attorney not knowing how expensive it would be to get a Patent prototypes etc., The patent attorney referred me to The United States and Patent and Trademark Office to learn more about Patent, Trademarks etc. I went on the United States Patent and Trademark Office website and I called the number to learn more about patent and trademark and thought it would be better way to make money for individual to start their own websites for business, personal etc., so that I could pay for patents, trademarks, copyrights etc., regarding my ideas in which are listed above. Considering the fact that I was talking to a person representing the government I didn't thin Bob Parson was going to take the idea because he was working for the government, He told me about The Secretary of State. I was new to the USPTO and he did not inform me that I could file a trademark within the USPTO nor did he tell me about the fees. I felt confident in telling Bob Parsons my idea because he was a representative of The USPTO at the time I was trying to pursue my ideas and considering the fact that he was working for the government, I didn't think he was going to take it. I wrote Go Daddy, ICANN and IANA A few times regarding this matter and they never responded. I was told by a representative of the trademark trial and appeal board that I could file a petition myself and someone else if not him when I called in again walked me through filing The Petition of Cancellation halfway through the process he made it seem like it was simple as that I was better off filing it in civil court with all the dates and run around you are giving me.

I called into the United States Patent and Trademark Office and spoke with a representative in The Trademark Trial and Appeal Board he never said I could not represent myself. It must be some type of miscommunication also because I was on the phone with a representative the day I was filing the Petition of Cancellation and he told me to file it under class number 009 and he never mentioned that I had 21 days to file the other class 042 In regards to Registered Mark #2558989. I'm finding out this information after filing the Petition of Cancellation. I would have taken the necessary precautions in filing The Petition of Cancellation correctly and I had money for an attorney but The USPTO Trademark trial and Appeal representative made it seem like it simple as that. I was also told by a representative in the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board that the grounds for filing the petition of cancellation was in regards to how many years it's been and asked me if it's been more than five years than that would be the grounds for cancellation I called later and found out it was in regards to my particular reason so I took what he said and she said because I was confused. I've feel been misled by representative with in USPTO Trademark Trial and Appeal Board before filing and after the filing of The Petition of Cancellation. I'm not sure if it's there training or the fact that I am going against an individual because he was working for The USPTO. I think The USPTO representatives contradicts your rules by saying one thing know it's another. I would also like to know why are my documents being filed on different dates than the day I file them within the USPTO and Why are they being submitted in to the USPTO system on different dates.
